TUB TRUTHS.

A DROP of ink will color a whole glass of water. It is an inch of yeast which makes a pan of bread rise, and a single cake of soap containing unabsorbed alkali can ruin a hundred times its cost in laces and fine embroidery. After all, is it wise to take such risks with common soap? Of course you can get along without Ivory Soap. So can a wagon without axle grease—but it goes hard.

FUGITIVE'S FLIGHT STOPPED.

Louis Ely Collided With a Cart and Lost Five Teeth.

Louis Ely of No. 102 Morris met with a most peculiar accident late yesterday afternoon, as a result of which he is now missing. He was in the hospital with broken nose and badly lacerated face. Ely was with a crowd in the neighborhood of Thirtieth and Wright streets, when Officer Berden, who had been shot in the eye, ran into the crowd in an effort to get away. Ely, in his flight, did not notice an approaching carriage, and ran suddenly into its front, knocking out five of his teeth, breaking his nose and cutting his mouth and cheek. When the officer picked him up he was bleeding profusely. An ambulance was summoned and he was hurried to the City Hospital, where he was received. His injuries are not considered serious.
